

Community Giveback Program

Economic Reconciliation in Action: MSS Ltd., MMC and Member Hospitals Leading the Way in Canada

Medical, Surgical and Safety Supplies Limited (MSS Ltd.), Mohawk Medbuy Corporation (MMC) and MMC Member hospitals are working together to achieve meaningful Economic Reconciliation for Indigenous businesses, organizations, communities and individuals across Canada. By continuing to build an Indigenous Social Benefit Procurement Framework, we are increasing the social value of procurement across Canada in a fair, inclusive, sustainable and meaningful way.

As a proudly Indigenous-owned business, MSS Ltd. is committed to sharing procurement benefits with local Indigenous communities and organizations, while working towards achieving true Economic Reconciliation and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Calls to Action 22, 23 and 92. MSS Ltd. is Buy Social certified. As a social enterprise, MSS Ltd. is committed to giving 51% of its net proceeds to our social mission: Supporting the Economic Reconciliation of Indigenous Communities.

Scholarships

Paving the way for Indigenous youth to achieve their academic dreams

Providing scholarships for Indigenous youth in science, health and pre-med programs in universities across Canada.

First Nations Communities

Building relationships with local First Nations to advance Economic Reconciliation plans and sustainable economic opportunities

Forming relationships with First Nations communities and their leaders and Elders in developing business opportunities.

Local Indigenous Health Care Centres

Helping provide safe and accessible care to Indigenous families

Working together with all stakeholders to provide care through partnerships, coordination and integrated service delivery. This involves supporting continuum of care delivery models for all forms of health care, including traditional healing, mental health treatment, substance and addictions treatment, care for Indigenous women and children and trauma-informed care for all Indigenous Peoples and their families.